

68th Birthday of General Pershing

Will Receive The Four Latest Foreign Decorations Which Admiring Nations Have Conferred Upon Him—Now Fully Retired.

Washington, Sept. 12 (AP).—General John J. Pershing today celebrated the sixtieth birthday of a life rich in adventure and accomplishment, and crowned by leadership of the battalions that fought in America's greatest war.

Now fully retired after a long and fruitful service in the army, the man who, with Washington and a few others, rose to the high distinction of a full-rank general, found on this birthday echoes of the acclaim which a grateful world bestows upon those it reveres.

At the War Department where General Pershing has a handsome office, although he is no longer actively connected with that branch of the government, time was set aside today so that the general might receive the four latest foreign decorations which admiring nations have conferred upon him.

Congress, which must consent before Americans may receive such decorations, acted favorably last winter, but Secretary Davis of the War Department postponed the presentation so that it might take place today.

The decorations were those conferred by the President of Czechoslovakia in 1920 and by the President of Peru, the President of Poland and the President of Venezuela in 1923.

Nearby, in fact in the same building which was the setting for further honoring this American warrior, another department of the government was pursuing efforts by which the world might be brought into universal peace and in this effort General Pershing lent as full support as he did to bringing victory at arms just ten years ago.

"No Peace Except a Lasting Peace." For him to endorse the Kellogg-Briand Peace Treaty seemed to roll back the years for his friends to that day in Paris eleven years ago when he exclaimed:

"There must be no peace except a lasting peace."

For a man who has lived such a full life as General Pershing has, the changes that can come within a brief period may be accepted with little concern, but his friends found it difficult today to reconcile the serenity of his sixtieth birthday with the tumult surrounding the anniversary ten years ago. The great St. Mihiel drive had just come to a close. President Wilson had called the words symbolizing the gratitude of the American people. He was a soldier with the whole world speaking in his name.

Then came the ensuing days of swift victory for the allied forces and ultimately the triumphal entrances to Paris, Brussels, Rome, London, New York and Washington. There were offers of honors from dozens of governments and from the French an honor given no other foreign general—the privilege of riding under the Arc de Triomphe.

Since Americans have established almost a custom of bestowing the Presidency upon its greatest warriors, it was to be expected that General Pershing should be spoken of in that connection in the campaign which followed the conclusion of the war. But unlike Jackson, Zachary Taylor, Grant, Harrison and Roosevelt, the soldier this time stopped all moves in his favor.

Two presidents helped to lift above all other American soldiers and put him in a rank with the great generals of history. Roosevelt made him a brigadier general direct from a captain after he had subdued the Moros in the Philippine Islands and placed him in command of the expeditionary forces and made him a full general, which rank Congress later made permanent.

Had Record Before World War. When the World War came, Pershing already had established a record for himself. He had fought in the frontier campaigns, in the Spanish-American War, with Roosevelt's rough riders at El Caney and San Juan with General Nelson Miles in the expedition against Chief Geronimo and his Apache braves and had gone through four years of jungle fighting in the Philippines.

After the World War he was called to work out his ideas of national defense by becoming chief of the army staff and later to attempt to bring about peace between Chile and Peru which was in trouble over the Tacna-Arica boundary dispute.

General Pershing's birth sixty-eight years ago today was at Meadville, Mo. Of his ancestry a biographer says:

"He was the son of John Fletcher Pershing and Elizabeth Thompson, a daughter of Kentucky. By coincidence, the man who led a great American army, which brought Alsace and Lorraine back under the French flag, was a descendant of an Alsatian—Frederick Pfoerschlin—who emigrated to America, where the name became Pershing."

Five Seamen Die In Tanker Blast

23 Other Members of Crew and 25 Other Survivors Saved by Spanish Steamer, Attracted to Their Rescue by Smoke.

Southport, N. C., Sept. 12 (AP).—The charred bulk of the tanker Shreveport, anchored off Frying Pan Shoals, bore mute evidence today to another grim tragedy of the sea.

Five seamen were dead because of an unexplained explosion yesterday on board the craft which came with stunning and terrifying abruptness, tore away the bridge deck and amidship housings and incapacitated the vessel's radio facilities. Almost immediately the ship was enveloped in flames.

Four members of the crew were injured and with 25 other survivors were brought into Southport by the Spanish steamer Aldecoa, which was attracted to their rescue by the smoke from the blazing vessel. The injured men were expected to recover.

Tales of heroism were related by the survivors. R. F. Churchill, of Cliftondale, Mass., the Shreveport's steward, and one of the injured, was imprisoned in his quarters by twisted steel. His cries attracted the attention of the other men as they were pushing away in the two life boats left seaworthy by the explosion. They returned to the ship and rescued the steward through a port hole.

The crew rowed for forty-five minutes in its frail, overloaded boats before the arrival of the Aldecoa. Meanwhile, the boatsman, about whom no more was known than that he shipped at Philadelphia, died, and Captain S. A. Simmons of Baltimore, master of the vessel, listed among the injured, remained for the most part in an unconscious condition. Regaining his senses for a short period, Simmons insisted that the boats return to the wreck and search for anyone that might have been left behind. Members of the crew dissuaded him.

As to the cause of the explosion there was only conjecture. Captain Simmons himself would advance no theory. The ship was in ballast from Philadelphia, where its cargo had been discharged, to Gulfport.

Negroes Held For Grand Jury

Roscoe Benson and John Johnson, Accused of Stealing Dr. Rockefeller's Watch Valued Examination—Other Cases in Police Court.

Roscoe Benson and John Johnson, two negroes arrested Tuesday on a charge of stealing a gold watch from Dr. Harold Rockefeller, waived examination when their case was called in police court today and Judge Shufeldt held them both to await the action of the grand jury, fixing bail at $1,000 each.

Philip Lasher of Wrentham street, arrested Tuesday on a charge of disorderly conduct, pleaded not guilty and his hearing was adjourned to September 18, and bail fixed at $50 for his appearance at that time.

Walter Joseph, arrested by Sergeant Phinney on Wednesday on a warrant sworn out by Leo Henderson of 51 Park street, charging Walter with assault in the third degree, had his hearing adjourned to September 17.

Thomas Sheehan, arrested by Officer Burgher on Franklin street, was fined $5 for public intoxication. Joseph L. Harris was arrested at White Plains on Wednesday on a warrant sworn out by A. W. Mollott of Wall street. Officer VanBuren was sent after Harris who is accused of giving Mollott a check for $30 which later proved to be no good. Harris will be arraigned later in police court to answer to the charge.

Polio Case On Elmendorf Street

Kingston's First Case of Infantile Paralysis Brought to Attention of Health Officials On Wednesday—Mabel Ross, 8, Taken Ill On Sunday.

Kingston's first case of infantile paralysis this year was brought to the attention of Dr. E. H. Loughran, city health officer, on Wednesday. The child ill with the disease is Mabel Ross, eight-year-old daughter of Edward L. Ross of 244 Elmendorf street, who was taken ill on Sunday.

Wednesday afternoon Dr. Frank W. Laidlaw, state sanitary inspector of this district, called at the board of health office and when he learned of the case he accompanied Dr. Loughran to see the child and confirmed the diagnosis.

WHO KNOWS FARRELLY FAMILY IN KINGSTON?

The Seamen's Bank for Savings of New York city has written the city clerk's office stating that Felix H. Farrelly opened an account in that bank in 1861. At that time he was a priest at Rondout. He was born in Ireland in 1821, and had three sisters, Anna, Mary and Rosalie. The bank has not heard from Father Farrelly in over 20 years and is anxious to locate him or his relatives.

State and National Coolidge Will Help Hoover

Both Are Intermixed in State Where Prohibition and Farm Problem Cut Through Party Lines, Leaving Result of November Election Doubtful.

Indianapolis, Sept. 12 (AP).—An extraordinary study in political cross currents—even for 1923—is developing in politics-loving Indiana, where prohibition and the farm problem cut through party lines and a tangle of state issues intertwine themselves into the national campaign.

Close about Monument Circle here in the capital is clustered a strange assortment of political headquarters. While one of them makes appeal for party regularity all along the line, its neighbor may be devoting itself exclusively to the fortunes of a single candidate, and a third, a few doors away, may be tuning its activities to a solitary campaign issue.

Taken together they typify the jumbled and overlapping factors that must be reckoned with in any forecast of what the state will do in November.

Only one element is lacking. If the voters of the state were normally half Republicans and half Democrats, the puzzle would be complete. The fact is that the great majority regularly vote the Republican ticket in both state and national elections and have been doing so for years. Harding in 1920 and Coolidge in 1924 each took from Indiana a plurality approximating 200,000. No one realizes better than the Democratic managers that if the state is even to approach defection from the Hoover column in 1928, heavy inroads must be made on the normal Republican strength.

Republican Leaders Confident. Republican leaders appear to have every confidence that no such inroads are in prospect. Although the state organization opposed Hoover's nomination and battled at Kansas City for a McNary-Haugen plank, it accepted the party verdict and its leader, Senator James E. Watson, is on the stump for the party ticket.

There is no question on the other hand of the militancy of the Democratic organization, which is preparing to go into action against these natural odds. Illness has removed Tom Taggart from active generalship, but the state forces of democracy are going forward under new leadership with every appearance of unity and with some considerable strategic factors weighing in their favor. Aside from the accessions they expect on the farm issue and the pulling power of the Democratic ticket among the Republicans who agree with Gov. Smith about prohibition, they count on the Democratic state ticket to help greatly in breaking down Republican resistance.

Believe Daily Will Help Smith.

Indiana has passed through a series of scandals under two successive Republican state organizations. The Democratic nominee for governor, Frank C. Dally, a popular Indianapolis lawyer with a record for criminal prosecution, is leading in a general plea to the voters to forget party and declare a new deal in both state and nation. Even the Republican leaders expect Dally to run well, though they predict his defeat, and the Democratic claim such a majority for him as will help materially in lifting Smith and Robinson toward an Indiana victory.

Democratic spokesmen likewise predict Smith gains from the Republicans in most of the cities and particularly in Gary with its large population of steel workers. They count on help from the southern Indiana mine workers who recently had been on strike for months and from 50,000 or more negro voters, among whom Jack Johnson is reported to be organizing Smith-for-President clubs. But in all these directions Democratic claims are contradicted by Republicans.

Uncertain of Farm Strength. What farm strength can be thrown to the Democratic ticket remains to be seen. William H. Settle, president of the Indiana Farm Bureau Federation, is for Smith, and an organization calling itself the Independent Equality for Agriculture Club has opened headquarters with the announced purpose of opposing Hoover.

Much of the dynamite of this whole Indiana campaign situation still is under the surface. The multifunctioned campaign committees are only beginning to get under way. The state hopes to hear more about prohibition, and is looking forward to Governor Smith's expected farm relief speech at Omaha, next week. There are indications that many voters have not made up their minds.

GAS SERVICE AND RANGERS FOR POUGHKEEPSIE FIELD

Gasoline service and hangars for six planes will be furnished at the municipal field in Poughkeepsie if the common council agrees with plans of Mayor Sague. There are now five planes at the field and the mayor considers that the service is necessary. Bids to sell gasoline at the field will be received by the council, it is thought.

Ambulance Calls Here.

Wednesday the city ambulance removed Herbert Canetti from 67 Ponckhockie street to the Benedictine Hospital. Mrs. Adam Arguilewicz from 26 Jarrold street to the Benedictine Hospital; Max Cohen from 24 Home street to the City of Kingston Hospital, and this morning Mrs. E. Costello from 214 East Union street to the Benedictine Hospital.

Smith Denies He Was Intoxicated

Legionnaires Against Pensions State Enforcement

Albany, N. Y., Sept. 12 (AP).—The political situation in New York state, which Governor Smith's managers figure must line up for him in November if he is to defeat Herbert Hoover, drew the attention today of the Democratic presidential nominee as state party leaders gathered for a conference with him late today at the executive mansion.

There was to be a general discussion of plans preparatory to the state nominating convention at Rochester October 1 and 2 when a ticket will be named and a platform adopted. Governor Smith has given no indication as to who he will favor for governor or any other post.

No other engagements were on the governor's calendar for the day. Last night he broke his long silence on what has been described as a "whispering campaign" against him by issuing a formal statement for publication today, branding as "slander" an accusation that he was "disgracefully intoxicated" at the New York state fair at Syracuse August 30.

Made public by the nominee at his offices at the state capitol, the statement was headed: "Nailing a lie in the whispering campaign." Interwoven with the statement were three letters and a telegram dealing with the incident which the governor had received from several persons, and the names of two women, one from Syracuse and the other from Parkersburg, W. Va., were mentioned in connection with circulation of the charge. It was said on behalf of both women in their home cities last night that they had nothing to say on the subject at the present time.

May Make New Counter Attack. There were indications today that the Democratic nominee might counter attack in another direction soon in an effort to prove false other derogatory statements said to have been circulated to injure his presidential chances. Meanwhile he will continue to work on state business, and probably take a rest at the end of the week so as to be in good shape for departure Sunday on his first campaign speaking tour.

M. William Bray, new Democratic state chairman, and Mrs. Caroline O'Day, vice chairman, were among the party leaders here today for the conference with the governor. Tomorrow the same leaders will go to Utica, home of Mr. Bray, to confer with all the Democratic county chairmen and state committeemen and map out further plans of organization.

Patrolman at Hospital Slain

Jeremiah Brosnan on Guard in Prison Ward at Fordham Hospital Killed—Automobile Found.

New York, Sept. 12 (AP).—A patrolman on guard in the prison ward at Fordham Hospital was shot and killed early today by one of three men who made their escape. The men gained entrance to the hospital by one of them displaying a hand painted with iodine and asking for treatment. While an orderly was waiting on them they shot and killed Patrolman Jeremiah Brosnan with a sawed-off shotgun as he sat in an adjoining reception room.

The men dashed up the stairs past the orderly and nurse and escaped in a waiting automobile bearing a New Jersey license.

Police are working on the theory that the slayer was a former prisoner seeking revenge. Brosnan had been a member of the police force for 24 years and for the last seven years had been detailed to the hospital.

Only one prisoner was in the ward at the time of the shooting and he made no attempt to escape. Descriptions of the three men were given the police by Robert Poynton, telephone operator at the hospital, who followed them to the street. A gray automobile bearing a New Jersey license believed to have been used by the gunmen was found a few hours after the shooting at 46th street and Fourth avenue, Brooklyn. Detectives examined it for finger prints and other possible clues.

Mrs. Howard Dies of Injuries.

Watertown, N. Y., Sept. 12 (AP).—Injured when an automobile turned over near the village of Pulaski, Mrs. Thomas Howard of this city, died in a hospital today. The accident occurred yesterday when the woman's husband attempted to avoid hitting another car. Mrs. Howard is the third wife of local highway employees to meet accidental death in the last two weeks.

Boy Held for $50,000 Ransom.

Chicago, Sept. 12 (AP).—Frank Rantieri, a sewer contractor, notified police last night that his 19-year-old son had been kidnapped and was being held for $50,000 ransom. The kidnappers have notified him, he said, that the boy will be put to death if the money is not paid by Saturday. Police were told a week ago that the Rantieri boy was missing.

Found Dead in Cell.

Sacramento, Cal., Sept. 12 (AP).—Percy G. Barnes, confessed slayer of four of his ex-wife's relatives, was found dead in his cell in the county jail early today. He is believed to have committed suicide.

Legionnaires Against Pensions State Enforcement

Senator Brookhart for Pensions for World War Veterans—MacNider Wants Increase for Disabled Veterans.

Indianapolis, Sept. 12 (AP).—The resolution, providing that ex-servicemen be allowed the same pension as Spanish-American War veterans, had been carried to the floor when MacNider, former assistant secretary of war, criticized "politicians who want to promise us something which they know they cannot deliver."

Senator Brookhart leaped to his feet and retorted: "I'll not be bluffed. I know the interests behind this talk. I know what money will wage the fight against me. I'll not be bluffed by anyone at any time."

"I am making no accusations," MacNider replied, "but the greatest enemy the Legion has in this or any other fight in Washington is the man who always comes out with some other bill just as we are trying to get our own through."

"I simply submit that if the senator has any excess energy to put in for the care of the disabled that he goes to it that this lad who stood before us handless and sightless yesterday be paid more than a measly $50 a month before he worries about us with two legs to walk on and two eyes to see where we are going."

MacNider said he did not know whether the resolution was offered as a repudiation of the Legion stand or prompted by lack of information on the Legion's policy to aid disabled veterans.

Court Suspends Sentence on Wood

County court convened this morning at 10 o'clock for the purpose of taking up the trial of civil matters which had been set down for trial. There were a number of trial jurors in attendance. The day calendar which contained seven cases was called at the opening of court. Several of the cases were not answered by attorneys who had set them down for trial, others were unable to proceed to trial on account of absence of interested parties. No. 21, Edmund Schoonmaker against Jacob Forest Packing Company, Inc., a negligence action, was announced as settled.

In No. 19, Raymond H. Woodard against John Van Wageningen, a negligence action, there was no appearance on the part of plaintiff and A. J. Cook who appeared for Rosendale, Dugan and Haines, attorneys for defendant, moved for a dismissal of the complaint which was granted by the court. Walter J. Miller, attorney of record for plaintiff, failed to appear.

In the matter of Otis Wood, who at the last term of county court pleaded guilty to a larceny charge and received a suspended sentence, the court further suspended sentence during good behavior. Wood has been reporting to Probation Officer Service since being arraigned in court and has made a good record. On the recommendation of Mr. Service the court further suspended sentence during good behavior and ordered cash bail in the case returned.

Court recessed until Friday morning at 10 o'clock when it is expected a civil case will be taken up for trial.

File Appraisal in Johnston Estate

The gross assets of the estate of George E. Johnston of New Paltz, are $98,235.33 as reported by Joel Brink, County Treasurer, as appraiser under the transfer tax law to Surrogate George F. Kaufman, which to be deducted $30,484.25 for funeral, debts and commissions, leaving $67,751.08 as net value of estate to be distributed. Persons who are entitled to distribution are: Isabella A. Johnston, $20,000; Stephen L. Johnston, Elizabeth Bogart, Charles A. Johnston and John W. Lawrence, each $11,527.77. John W. Eckert represented the executors; Thomas F. Coughlin the State Tax Commission.

BROOKLYN MAN WAS NOT IN FLOOD AREA

E. E. Ougheltree, secretary-treasurer of the local chapter, American Red Cross, has been advised by the Brooklyn home service department of the Brooklyn chapter that Paul Kohl, whose whereabouts were unknown immediately after the recent flood in the Rondout valley, has returned to his home. After the flood Kohl, who was thought to have been in the neighborhood of the stricken area, failed to communicate with relatives in Brooklyn and it was feared he had been a victim of the flood. The local Red Cross chapter was asked to assist in locating him. Later he returned to his home in Brooklyn, not having been in the affected area.

Dismiss Rhineland Evacuation.

Geneva, Sept. 12 (AP).—A second meeting of the "Big Six"—Germany, France, Great Britain, Italy, Japan and Belgium—to discuss evacuation of the Rhineland began 10 o'clock this morning. Baron Mouchaux, Belgian minister plenipotentiary in Paris, was obliged to return to Brussels because of cabinet duties.

A Chimney Fire.

The fire department was called out Wednesday afternoon for a chimney fire in the house occupied by Andrew Sekely at 77 Pearl street.

Pomona Favors State Enforcement

Uster County Pomona Grange Also Grows on Record as Opposed to Any Change in 18th Amendment—Much Business at Fall Meeting.

The fall meeting of Uster County Pomona Grange was held at Asbury on Friday, September 7, with Worthy Master Harold V. Story presiding.

Reports showed wonderful activity among the Granges—fairs, clam-bakes, dances, etc. New Paltz won first prize of $50 for its exhibit at the Ellenville Fair. Pleasant and Uster also put on an exhibit.

After a real dinner the business of the afternoon was transacted. Mrs. Alice Kurdt, the bride of the new farm bureau manager, was obligated in the fifth degree.

The sum of $60 was voted for Near East Relief, this being the amount necessary for maintaining a child for one year. It was decided to give the task of raising funds in the future for this work to the home economics committee as there was decided objection to taking money from the treasury for this purpose from year to year.

The county fair was discussed and it seemed to be the prevailing feeling that each Grange should give its loyal support. Some felt that Kingston would be more accessible and would attract greater crowds.

Pomona Grange went on record as rigidly opposed to any change in the 18th Amendment, and heartily favoring a state enforcement law.

4 H Club Members Entertain.

Brother J. C. Barnes, lecturer, then announced a demonstration by a 4 H Club of Orange county. While the young ladies were getting their equipment in readiness, Mr. Barnes introduced G. D. Musser, 4 H Club agent of Orange county, who spoke of what was being accomplished by the clubs. He explained their emblem, the four-leaf clover, as representing the head, hand, heart, and health. He quoted Roosevelt as saying, "If you want to make anything of a man, do it before he is a man. This is the aim of these clubs, teaching boys and girls to shoulder the responsibility of the home and farm, how to take part in discussions, how to take part in the best methods."

In order to have an agent it is necessary for the county to raise $2,500. The state will give $1,800. Mr. Musser claimed the more satisfactory method of raising the money was by setting the supervisors to appropriate the sum. So great is the state's interest in these clubs that it pays the fares and board of about three hundred and fifty boys and girls annually at the state fair. Those eligible to this honor are the members winning the most points in the various counties.

Champions Give Canning Demonstration.

Mr. Musser then presented the two champions of Orange county, who gave a canning demonstration. The girls gave their names as Catherine O'Brien and Eleanor Gutowski. They canned spinach and a soup mixture of neatly sliced carrots, green beans, and celery, with a teaspoon of salt and one tablespoon of vinegar to help preserve the vegetables. The girls took turns in explaining, clearly and precisely, each step in the process.

Lecturer Barnes then told something of the recent poultry tour taken to New Jersey and Long Island, stopping at Farmingdale Agricultural School and viewing large chicken plants in that section. Members gathered from Brother Barnes that there were in the company men highly gifted with the art of story telling.

Deputy Weaver urged each Grange to send in promptly its quarterly report, as it is from this report that delegates to the State Grange are based.

DEMONSTRATE BRUSH DUCCO AT JOHN R. SHULTS'S STORE.

A demonstration of the use of Brush Ducco will be given at the store of John R. Shults in Kingston on September 15, by H. C. Inglis, a ducco expert. Mr. Inglis is prepared to show the customers of Mr. Shults not only the ordinary use of Brush Ducco, but also how to make artistic finishes in line with the new movement of home decoration which is sweeping over the country. In preparation for the demonstration all the latest colors in Brush Ducco have been obtained by Mr. Shults. Among other things there will be a showing of the famous new "pour" which has awakened such interest among women who use it for decorative purposes. Mr. Shults is notifying his customers of this demonstration which will be one of the most important ever held here. Mr. Inglis will also be prepared to answer any questions as to the application of Brush Ducco or paint and varnish.

ANNUAL PICNIC OF KRIPPLEBUSH CHURCH.

The annual Sunday school picnic of Kripplebush M. E. Church will be held at the lodge hall Friday, September 21, afternoon and evening. A good supper will be served by the ladies from 6 o'clock until all have partaken. Refreshments of all kinds will be on sale. There will be a fish pond for the children, also a free, mysterious guessing bag with a prize for the best guesser. Plenty of music will be furnished by a good orchestra. If stormy, then it will be held on Saturday night rain or shine. All invited to attend and enjoy a pleasant evening.

Pleased With New Museum

A. S. Hopkins, assistant commissioner of conservation, spent Monday afternoon in Kingston and with Judge Clearwater, president of the Senate House Association, and Charles J. Michaud, the contractor for the new Senate House Museum, carefully went over both the Senate House and the Museum in order to determine what additional furniture for the grounds surrounding it was necessary, and decided upon the following:

a. A continuation of the iron fence from Fair street to Clinton avenue on the easterly side of the property.
b. A steel flagpole of at least sixty feet in length, surmounted by a gilded eagle, with proper balustrade.
c. Glass cases which can be locked in which documents and other small objects can be exhibited without danger of asportation by visitors.

17-YEAR LOCUSTS DESTROY VEGETATION.

Ticonderoga, N. Y., Sept. 13 (P).—The seventeen-year locusts have arrived in this vicinity in such force that in some places all vegetation has been completely cleared and nothing but brown earth can be seen. The insects also are cutting oats from the straw, so that oat fields look as though loose grain has just been sown in the field. After devouring the grain the pests attacked the hay and now have started on the corn.

Highways between farms are black with migrating locusts. Many are killed by the wheels of passing automobiles but their places are taken quickly and the number never seems to reduce.

Capper Says Smith Can't Win West

Does Not Fit Western Idea, Says Kansas Senator—West Opposes Him Because of His Tammany Affiliations and Stand on Prohibition.

New York, Sept. 13 (AP).—Senator Arthur Capper of Kansas told an audience at the Hoover-Curtis Club today that Governor Smith's "extreme and untenable position on prohibition," as well as his Tammany affiliation, made it impossible for the Democratic candidate to win the west.

"The west does not want a west administration," asserted the senator. "They feel that prohibition is economically sound and morally right. No amount of propaganda or trying to set up a different issue is going to fool them. Governor Smith's plan for state control of the liquor traffic has no support in the agricultural states."

"The west opposes Al Smith because of his Tammany affiliations. That is not the only reason why the west will go against him, but it is the chief reason. Everything the west knows or has ever heard of Tammany Hall connects it with political trickery and corruption. Moreover, our folks believe that Tammany is associated with saloon rule, booze and all the social vices, besides political graft."

"In my judgment Governor Smith was strongest the day he was nominated. He caught the public eye. He was spectacular, a dynamic figure. But upon analysis of his connections, the interest in Governor Smith as a presidential possibility has lagged—the middle west's interest in Governor Smith today is to insure that he is not elected president. He is a fine man and an able executive, but Governor Smith just doesn't fit our ideas."

Western farmers, Senator Capper said, "are not going to Tammany for aid in solving the farm problem."

"The farmers themselves, he added, 'laugh at the idea of Tammany in the role of friend of the farmer.' My opinion is that as president Mr. Hoover will do his level-best to put agriculture on an equal footing with general business and prosperity."

WANTS SMITH DENOUNCED FROM METHODIST PULPIT

Peoria, Ill., Sept. 13 (AP).—Speaking as a representative of the Methodist Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals, the Rev. J. E. Skillington of Altoona, Pa., last night made a plea that "the candidacy of Alfred E. Smith be denounced from every pulpit of the Methodist church in America," in an address before the Central and Illinois conference of the church.

Mr. Skillington said that "Smith's political practices for the past twenty-five years cause us to oppose him." "He is the product of the Tammany machine, and Tammany is a byword in the nation and a symbol of predatory politics," the speaker said. "Governor Smith has praised Tammany highly and when in the legislature himself was the friend of the saloon."

In an address earlier in the conference Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes had defended the church's activity against the Smith candidacy, saying that "the Methodist church was on record in favor of temperance 50 years before Governor Smith was born."

Senator William E. Borah of Idaho refused to make an address scheduled for tonight because of what he termed the "political aspect" of the church meeting.

BISHOP URGES METHODISTS TO OPPOSE GOV. SMITH

Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 13 (AP).—Bishop Titus Lowe of the Methodist Church, yesterday urged every Methodist minister and layman to get into the political campaign this year in opposition to Alfred E. Smith, Democratic presidential candidate, and "any move to bring liquor back to America," in opening the Puget Sound conference.

The bishop devoted most of his address to a call to ministers to make their power felt politically in this campaign and in all "civic and political" activities for righteousness.

MISS GRIMMELT, ROLLER SKATER, COLLAPSED

Buffalo, Sept. 13 (AP).—After skating through the early morning hours while her partners rested, Miss Margaret Grimmelt, one of the contestants in a six-day roller skating marathon which began here several days ago, collapsed this morning and was taken to a hospital.

Officials of the race, sponsored by the American Legion, said she was merely tired out by the steady grind and would be allowed to re-enter if her condition permitted.

World Religious Peace Conference. Geneva, Sept. 13 (AP).—A World Religious Peace Conference will be held in 1930, probably in India. It was decided today by the Church Peace Union Committee, of which Dean Shailer Mathews of the University of Chicago is chairman. An organization committee of 1,000 will be appointed and all religions will be invited to send delegates.

Seven Persons Killed

Gary, Ind., Sept. 13 (AP).—Seven persons were killed and another was injured, probably fatally, when a west bound Grand Trunk freight train struck their automobile at a grade crossing on the edge of Gary today.

A Birthday Party

A birthday party was held at the home of Miss Marie Prusack, 44 Meadow street, Tuesday, September 11, in honor of her eighteenth birthday. Musical selections and games were enjoyed by all. Those present were the Misses Era Mae Boss, Violet Burns, Frances Debrosky, Lena Moughtaling, Martha Gardiner, Pearl Jones, Anna Mae Norton, Lauretta Burgher, Marie Joyce, Beatrice Fitzgerald, Marie Prusack, the Messrs. Michael Debrosky, Walter Debrosky, Irving Gardiner, Sammy Comarato, Richard Ray, Chester Monigan, Renee Brandow, Jacob Schatzel, Joseph Wencski, Stanley Wencski, Frank Eigo, Mrs. S. Prusack, Mr. and Mrs. Prusack, Miss Marie and Mrs. Joseph Nichols. Miss Marie was the recipient of many useful and beautiful presents, including five dollars in gold. All departed in the wee hours of the morning wishing Miss Marie many more happy birthdays.

McNally-Gillane.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday afternoon, September 12, at 4 o'clock in St. Agatha's Church, 49th street and 7th avenue, Brooklyn, when Mae Loretta Gillane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Gillane of 617 47th street, became the bride of John F. McNally of 513 47th street, son of Mrs. Thomas McNally of East Kingston. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edward A. Duffy, pastor. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attractively attired in white georgette and carried bridal roses. She was attended by her sister, Dorothy, who wore pink georgette and carried pink roses. The groom was attended by William B. Gillane, Jr., a brother of the bride. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride and was attended by guests from Woodbridge, N. J., Kingston, Holyoke, Mass., and Long Island. After the reception the couple left for an extended honeymoon trip to the Adirondacks and Canada. Upon their return a newly furnished home awaits them at 679 48th street, Brooklyn.

Golden Wedding at West Park.

On Sunday, September 9, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lucas R. Conner of West Park, was the scene of a very enjoyable event, it being their fiftieth wedding anniversary. At 12:30 p. m. a bountiful wedding dinner was served to which all present did ample justice. The table was beautifully decorated in gold and white, the favors being miniature brides dressed in yellow. Mr. and Mrs. Conner were the recipients of a substantial sum in gold. The afternoon was spent in visiting with the bride and groom who both are in good health. At six o'clock the guests again assembled in the dining room where a beautiful supper was awaiting them. The bride cut and distributed a very pretty decorated wedding cake. The guests departed in the early evening wishing Mr. and Mrs. Conner many more years of health and wedded life. Those present beside the bride and groom were Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Conner of Cottekill, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Conner and daughter, Lillian of Wurtsboro, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Drake and daughter, Catherine, of Newburgh, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Roosa of Binnewater, N. Y., and Miss Ellis of West Park, N. Y.

Fisher-Eisenhardt.

At a nuptial Mass in St. Andrew's Roman Catholic Church, Ellenville, Wednesday morning, September 5, Miss Madeline A. Eisenhardt of that village and Walter D. Fisher of Beacon were united in marriage in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Joseph Gels, pastor of St. Andrew's, in front of a floral banked altar. Miss Nettie Fisher of Beacon was the bridesmaid and Irving Burns of Cold Spring acted as the best man. The bride and bridesmaid were charmingly gowned and carried bouquets of white and pink roses. During the wedding, Miss Anna Henninger of Ellenville presided at the organ. The wedding march from Lohengrin was played as the bridal party approached the altar. Mrs. Eliza M. Lynch of Poughkeepsie was the soloist. Her numbers were "Rosewings," "Ave Maria" and "O Salutaris." After the church ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Fisher were tendered a delightful reception at the home of the bride in Ellenville. The Eisenhardt home was beautifully decorated with autumn foliage and cut flowers. The newlyweds left later on a honeymoon trip. When they return they will reside at 224 Fishkill avenue, Beacon. They will be at home to their friends after October 1. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher received many beautiful wedding gifts and have the well wishes of a large circle of friends. Among the guests at the wedding and reception were: Mrs. Anna Eisenhardt, mother of the bride; the Rev. Joseph Gels, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hornsberger, the Misses Nettie, Kate and Carrie Cross, Mrs. Lawrence Fleckenstein, Mrs. Philip Shaffer, Mrs. George Eck, Miss Flora May Eck, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eck, Mrs. Tillie Eck, Miss Anna Henninger, Mrs. Kittie LaGrave and Mrs. Mat. Plane Stolen From Airport

Utica, N. Y., Sept. 12 (AP).—A Travelair, three passenger taxi and maroon biplane, owned by Richard Yule, of New Hartford, a suburb of this city, was stolen from the Utica municipal airport early today. State police, county authorities, and the department of commerce at Washington were notified of the theft and joined in the search.

Yule reported to airport authorities that he left the plane parked at the airport and tied to a fence. It was last seen at 11 o'clock last night and was reported missing at 6 o'clock today. In the tank were 8 to 10 gallons of gas, confining the cruising radius of the plane to less than 100 miles, according to local fliers.

Patients at the Marcy State Hospital near the flying field were awakened about 4 a. m. by the noise of an airplane motor overhead, but the night watchman at the airport, who went off duty at 5 a. m., said he did not hear the plane take off.

According to aviation experts the plane must have been taken off by a trained pilot, capable of negotiating a takeoff from a strange field, with a strange plane, in the darkness. Only three fliers in Utica would be capable of such a takeoff, authorities said, and all three were in the city this morning.

The plane was equipped with a Curtis Oxo motor and carried the license number C6119 on the wings.

Plane Forced Down, 2 Hurt

Decatur, Ind., Sept. 13 (AP).—Colonel William Thaw, II, of Pittsburgh and Captain John P. Morris, also of Pittsburgh, piloting a Lockheed-Vega plane in the non-stop air race were forced down on a farm 15 miles south of Decatur, Ind., at 12:30 o'clock this morning by a broken oil line. Colonel Thaw suffered a dislocated hip and both were badly bruised. They were unable to summon aid and lay in the wreckage until found by a farmer at 6 o'clock this morning. They were brought to a hospital here. When the aviators discovered their oil line was broken they dropped a flare in an effort to locate a field for landing. The flare was extinguished, however, before the plane reached the ground and it struck a fence. The plane was demolished.

PASSENGERS SHAKEN UP IN TRAIN COLLISION

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 13 (AP).—Passengers were shaken but no one was reported injured when the Red Arrow, Pennsylvania passenger train from New York to Detroit, ran through an open switch and crashed into two freight cars on a siding in Lincoln Park, Detroit suburb, shortly before 9 a. m. today.

The freight cars were derailed, but none of the coaches of the passenger train left the tracks. First reports were that the Red Arrow, due here at 8:45 a. m., had been wrecked and ambulances and rescue squads of firemen were rushed to the scene.

TEAR IN ROYAL TROUSERS HOLDS UP DINNER DANCE

Santa Barbara, Cal., Sept. 13 (AP).—The tale of a tear in a pair of royal trousers that temporarily held up a dinner dance was going the rounds today among those who have entertained Prince George of Great Britain during the visit of his warship to this port.

A snag on a rustic bench ruined the royal nether garments during a dance given for the prince and other officers of H. M. S. Durban. Dancing was stopped and a hurry-up call for needle and thread was sent out while brother officers escorted Prince George to an ante-room. In a few moments the princely hand thrust the garment through the door for a maid to mend. The prince resumed his interrupted dancing program somewhat later.

Barred by paternal edict from flying to Hollywood to visit the film colony, the prince motored down instead at the invitation of Lilly Damita, French film star. They were guests of Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford at dinner last night.

Miss Damita said she met the prince in Paris more than a year ago while he and his brother, the Prince of Wales, were visiting there.

JEALOUS HUSBAND ATTEMPTS TO SLAY WIFE'S FAMILY

New Orleans, Sept. 13 (AP).—Two persons were dead, one was reported dying and another was seriously wounded today as the result of an attempt by James Guerra, 25 year old night watchman, to slay his wife's family in a fit of insane jealousy. Guerra last night located his estranged bride of three months, 17 year old Nora Muller Guerra, living with her family in the old French quarter of the city in the hope of evading him. Falling at reconciliation, he shot and seriously wounded his wife, killed her mother, Mrs. Louise Muller, 68, and wounded John Muller, 22, her brother, so badly that he is believed to be dying. He then ended his own life with a bullet in his brain.

Isman Passes Over Tulsa.

Tulsa, Okla., Sept. 13 (AP).—Lieutenant Commander Jack Isman, flying Charles A. Levine's transatlantic monoplane, the Columbia, in the New York to Los Angeles non-stop air race passed over Tulsa at 11 a. m. today.

Welch, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Woodard and son, Paul, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Eisenhardt, Vincent Engwiler and Gordon Mergenthal of Poughkeepsie. The bride has many friends in Kingston, having been held during room girl at the Eagle Hotel and later at the Hotel Stuyvesant.

SACCONE DIED IN FALL INTO NIAGARA GORGE

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Sept. 13 (AP).—Police investigation has disclosed, Detective Chief George H. Callahan said today, that Louis Saccone, 22, of Niagara Falls, Ont., who died Tuesday in Mount St. Mary's Hospital and who was thought to have been the victim of an attack by some unidentified persons, died of injuries suffered Monday morning when he fell 20 feet into the Niagara Gorge, landing on jagged rocks.

Chief Callahan said that Anthony Mitchell, Niagara Falls, Ont., and Ralph Clark, this city, made statements to him and Coroner W. L. Draper last night in which they cleared up the mystery of the man's death. The three were examining the gorge bank in the vicinity of the Old Maid of the Mist landing at the foot of Ontario avenue to locate a good landing place for boats when the accident occurred.

THINK WRECKAGE BELONGED TO AMUNDSEN'S PLANE

Oslo, Norway, Sept. 13 (AP).—What is believed to be additional wreckage from the plane in which Roald Amundsen and five companions were lost at the start of their attempt to rescue members of the Noble Arctic expedition was found this morning in the southern part of the Strait of Tromsø.

It seemed to be a part of a wing from the French Latham seaplane piloted by Rene Guilbaud and carrying, besides Amundsen, Lieutenant Lief Dietrichsen and three French naval airmen.

The relic, which will be examined later today by French naval experts from the cruiser Strasbourg, was found in the vicinity where on Sept. 13, 1925, the plane was reported to have crashed.

ACCIDENTS CAUSED 4,638 DEATHS IN N. Y. C.

New York, Sept. 13 (AP).—Accidents caused the death of 4,638 persons in New York city last year, the New York Safety Congress announced today. Of this number 942 were children between the ages of 5 and 14 years.

Automobiles caused 1,135 deaths; falls 120; drownings 475; burns 240; street cars 136; railroads 51.

The others died from various causes.

NICK MAMER, SPOKANE ENTRANT, FORCED DOWN

Spokane, Wash., Sept. 13 (AP).—Nick Mamer, Spokane entrant in the non-stop transcontinental race from New York to Los Angeles, was forced down, unhurt, at Coland, Wyo., at 3:33 o'clock today. Mamer, who was flying a Buhl Sesqui plane, telephoned in the vicinity where on Sept. 13, 1925, the plane was reported to have crashed.

Identification of an additional relic of the machine would be taken here as confirming that belief.

The relic, which will be examined later today by French naval experts from the cruiser Strasbourg, was found in the vicinity where on Sept. 13, 1925, the plane was reported to have crashed.

Biggest Rug Made At Amsterdam

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., Sept. 12 (AP).—A chenille rug, said to be the largest ever produced in this country, was shipped a few days ago from a local carpet factory to a Detroit theatre which is to open soon.

The rug is 45 by 64 feet in size, three-quarters of an inch thick, and weighs more than 3,600 pounds. Forty persons were employed in making it and it was completed in seven weeks. Twenty-seven miles of chenille were used in the making and the surface is composed of 32,500,000 single tufts of yarn.

The pattern is Indo-Chinese in character, with red, white and gold predominating. Woven into the design are eight griffins, fabulous animals, half-lion and half-eagle, as well as other designs rarely seen in American art.

Ten expert designers worked three weeks, laying out and painting the design on paper marked off in 8,666,000 squares. They used 20 colors in the design. The chenille yarn then was dyed and woven into the base of the rug in one week by 20 weavers. Four rug weavers then worked for three and a half weeks completing the rug.

Sound pictures were made of the various operations—the first time an attempt has been made to graphically portray such a manufacturing achievement. The pictures will be shown in 50 theatres in various parts of the country.

Will Hold State Fair Two Weeks

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 13 (AP).—Lack of cooperation on the part of the public has been advanced by executives of the New York State Fair for postponing plans for an extension of the fair to two weeks until 1930.

With this year's fair, the 88th, safely out of the way, the fair directors already have begun plans for a larger exposition next year, with the hope that the results will justify an increase in the time allotted for the fair in 1930. While still optimistic, they have stated that it would scarcely be advisable to plan for a two weeks' fair next year.

The dates for next year's fair have been fixed tentatively at August 27 to September 1, corresponding to this year's dates. Attendance this year was 221,119, an increase of 2,827 over 1927, but a decrease from the 1926 attendance. Rain accounted for the poor showing last year, but this year's fair saw only about 10 minutes of bad weather.

With the expected construction of more permanent buildings and other plans for a larger and improved 1929 fair, it is hoped that attendance figures will insure a two weeks' run in 1930.

Shonan Church Services.

While the Rev. E. Charles Ross, pastor of the Reformed Church of Shonan, is on his vacation, the Rev. Thomas S. Braithwaite will officiate the next three Sundays in September. NEW YORK-VERMONT BRIDGE BEING BUILT.

Crown Point, N. Y., Sept. 13 (AP).—The cribs have been placed in position for the New York State-Vermont bridge across Lake Champlain between Fort Frederick, N. Y., and Chimney Point, Vt. Dredges now are clearing away the soft soil until rock bottom is reached for a solid foundation for the bridge. The new state highway leading to the bridge on the New York state side already is under construction. The road will intersect the Ticonderoga-Port Henry state highway at Currier's Corners, from which point a narrow dirt road formerly led to Fort Frederick better known as Fort Crown Point. The dirt road has been closed to the public from Currier's Corners to the Murdock farm, but a road has been opened to the bridgehead from Crown Point village by way of the lake road, or the Burdick's Crossing road farther north.

GIANT GERANIUM GROWN BY UPSTATE WOMAN.

Luzerne, N. Y., Sept. 13 (AP).—When Mrs. Winifred Stone planted a geranium slip in a flower box a year ago she scarcely expected it would grow into a giant plant that stands higher than an ordinary person's head and higher than a geranium ever has been known to grow in this section of the state. The plant is growing in a plant box the size of a barrel and is more than six feet tall, but has not blossomed this season. On the opposite side of Mrs. Stone's porch is another geranium, approximately four feet in height. The smaller geranium has bloomed.

Much Easier

"In these modern days," sighed the Spinster, "it is no easy matter for a woman to get married." "Oh, it's easier for a woman to marry a man than to let some other woman marry him," replied the cynical Bachelor.

Stamina and speed proved by 30,000 MILES in 26,326 MINUTES

You can experience the thrill of driving a car identical with those which won this amazing victory over time and distance. For The President Eight roadsters and sedans which made the greatest record in the history of transportation were chosen at random from the Studebaker assembly line by A. A. A. officials.

At Atlantic City Speedway these four shining-new President Eights, their motors sealed by the A. A. A., swung wide-open into an ordeal such as no cars ever faced before. For 19 days and 18 nights the two roadsters averaged better than 68 miles per hour, the sedans 64.15 and 63.99 miles per hour! Any one of these four Studebaker Presidents might just as easily have been your new car. But for pure chance they would have been sent to some Studebaker dealer.

There's a new Studebaker President Eight sedan at (think of it!) $1685, waiting for you to command its power. From the great 109 horsepower motor to the velvet-riding ball bearing spring shackles—an exclusive Studebaker feature—it's as like the four record-breaking Presidents as the four corners of a square! Come in and drive it NOW!

Changes in Staff Of the Y. W. C. A.

The first fall meeting of the board of directors of the Y. W. C. A. was held on Monday evening, September 10, at 8 o'clock.

A survey of the summer work was taken and several changes were reported.

Miss Jane Van Etten, general secretary, has been engaged for the coming year.

Miss Frances Beebe of Elmira, who directed the girl reserve work last year, will not be at the Y this year and Miss Lillian Herdman, former office secretary, will be girl reserve club and recreation leader for 1928-1929.

Miss Herdman has been with the Kingston Y. W. C. A. since it was formed in 1923 and during the last two years has been carrying much of the recreation work. She organized and coached the basketball teams of the Industrial League and taught bowling at the Y. M. In addition, she was a volunteer girl reserve club leader. Miss Herdman is very popular with all the girls—old and young—and much favorable comment has been expressed over her appointment to the girl reserve leadership.

The position of office secretary will be held by Miss Matilda Martin. Miss Martin has been in office work for a number of years. She was cashier and bookkeeper at Kresge's for nine years and was a very efficient treasurer of the Business Girls' Club of the Y last year. In the summer of 1927, she was a delegate from the club to the Y. W. C. A. Business Girls' Conference at Poland, Maine. The swimming classes at the Y, which will begin the first of October, will be in charge of Miss Alice McLaughlin. Miss McLaughlin spent two weeks this summer at the Life Saving and First Aid Institute at Annapolis, N. J. She took special courses in diving, various swimming strokes, life saving and first aid, and has made very interesting plans for the swimming classes this fall. Full information regarding these classes may be obtained at the Y.

Miss Lena Cascoe, a senior life saver, who assisted Miss McLaughlin last year, will again help with the classes this year.

The educational and membership committees are hard at work and other committees are organizing.

A booklet of fall and winter activities will be sent to all members and those interested in the Y in about ten days' time.

Blackstone

Mr. William Blackstone published in 1763 a volume entitled "Commentaries on the Laws of England." This was the first and only book of its kind in England, and it came to be regarded as an authoritative revelation of the law. While it has ceased to be of much practical value as an authority in the courts, it remains an arbiter on all public discussions on the law or the constitution.

Keep Within Bounds

We ought to attempt no more than what is in the compass of our genius, and according to our vein.—Dryden.

"You are charged," said the judge, "with beating up this government inspector. What have you to say?" "Nothing," replied the grocer. "I am guilty. I lost my head. All morning I had held my temper while government agents inspected my scales, tasted my butter, smelled my meat, graded my kerosene. In addition, your honor, I had just answered three federal questionnaires. Then this bird came along and wanted to take moving pictures of my cheese and I patted him in the eye."

Work is never half as hard as you think it is.

Druggist: "This medicine will make an entirely different woman of you."

Customer's husband: "Take a Margaret—never mind the cost."

More sleep will make you live longer, but what's the use of living longer just to sleep?

S. Arcastic says the best pair of lights he ever saw was a couple of Scotch preachers.

Tramp: "I have seen better days, sir."

Business Man: "I suppose you have, but I have not time to discuss the weather with you now."

"Do you really believe," asked an interested church layman of the bishop, "that Jonah lived three days and nights in the belly of a whale?" "When I get to heaven, I'll ask him," replied the bishop.

"And suppose you don't find Jonah in heaven?" pursued his tormentor.

"Then you can ask him."

A Kingston woman has had a kitchen cabinet four years and didn't know until yesterday that a bread board was part of its equipment. The discovery was made by her husband.

The farmer might be all right if left alone as some of the politicians claim. The trouble is that political grafters will not do that.

Smiles lighten the trials.

In order to be a success the prizefighter must always consider the rights of others.

"I fear Bill is ruin' his company for damages."

"Wot 'ave they done to 'im?" "They blew the quitten' whistle when he was carrying a heavy bit of steel and he dropt it on his foot."

"Now that we are married," he said, "perhaps I might venture to point out a few of your defects."

"Don't bother, dear. I am quite aware of them. It was those little defects that prevented me from getting a better man than you are."

She's only an osteopath's daughter, but she can give anybody a thrill.

"I owe a great deal to one woman," confessed a Kingston man. "She is my landlady."

"Dear John," the wife wrote from a fashionable resort. "I enclose the hotel bill."

"Dear Mary," he responded. "I enclose check to cover the bill, but please don't buy any more hotels at this figure; they are cheating you."

Cheer up. Dime novels are still being printed, but only now they appear in cloth covers and cost two dollars.

WANTED NOTHING LEFT. Hen-Pecked Husband, to Druggist: "That medicine reduced my wife's weight by half. Give me another bottle."

Sometimes a man is too good for his own good.

Hell hath no fury like a fat woman on a diet.

The wise woman helps her husband with a little advice—a very little.

NEW PALTZ

New Palitz, Sept. 13.—At Mrs. Slater's, "The Old Homestead," there were 60 boarders over Labor Day. Every evening there was something going on. Thursday last, a masquerade was held. Mr. and Mrs. Green of Newark and Mrs. Sourline took an acting part. Mr. Green masqueraded as Denman Thompson, or so called Joshua Whitecomb of the play called "The Old Homestead." Mrs. Green took first prize for wearing the most original costume and Howard Corner, the comedian, after the affair a collation was served. Another night a mock wedding was performed and a flash light photo was taken. Among the ones that took part were Mr. and Mrs. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Sourline, Mr. and Mrs. McKenney, George Canfield, Charles Wickes, Archie Porter, Miss Florence, Miss Widmer, Miss Alice Walker and John F. Gilschen.

The recent heavy rains have done great damage to farmers' growing land along the Wallkill in this locality. The crops of corn and potatoes, in the farmers' opinion, will be a total loss. This act of nature has never been known before to destroy so many crops in this section.

Time, most valuable of all our possessions, is squandered, day after day, by the best of us.

Yet, with time well-planned—so much for work and service, so much for recreation, so much for study, and so much for sleep—a fuller and more satisfying life can be lived.

Unfortunately though, in many homes today old-fashioned methods still rule and "woman's work is never done," so that the housewife is a house-bound slave with no time on her hands for other things.

With electrical housekeeping, however, the modern wife and mother finds that the wearying burden of old-time drudgery can be dropped and that the work around the house can be done so easily and so rapidly as to cut her housework time by many hours a day.

Electricity makes her free to take part in the other activities so necessary to a full and happy life.

Finding a Niche

Happiness is a question of finding one's niche, whether it is in the great world where cares are many and the struggle precarious, or in some smaller world where cares may be fewer and human relationships all the more precious.—American Magazine

Lord Effingham

A good many towns in the United States are called Effingham. There is always a reason. During the Revolutionary war, Lord Effingham resigned his commission in the English army, refusing to fight the Americans after England employed the Hessian mercenaries.—E. W. Howe's Magazine

Matters Before The Surrogate

In the surrogate's court letters of administration have been granted to Gertrude Maisenbelder, sister, of Belvedere street, Kingston, in the estate of Thomas Schoonmaker who died at Camp Jackson, South Carolina, October 6, 1918. The sole asset of the estate is $9,569, being amount due from U. S. Veterans Bureau. Thomas F. Coughlin, attorney for petitioner.

Elmer N. Mower, husband, who is named as petitioner and is executor of the estate of Rachel A. Mower, is principle legatee in estate of his wife who died in Sangerites June 17, 1929. Her will, executed April 19, 1929, has been filed for probate in the surrogate's court. Value of estate $1,500 real; $2,500 personal. Other beneficiaries are a sister and niece, amount unknown. Grant M. Brinlier and Jennie E. Sickles were witnesses to the will. Grant M. Brinlier, attorney for the petitioner.

LAST NIGHT on the RADIO

Reception Wednesday afternoon was first class but at dusk the local leaks began to get in their work and the preventable interference persisted most of the evening. The tooth paste, soap and eliminator programs were good and "Trial by Jury" was exceedingly good.

A surprise feature by WGY at 7:25 was a rebroadcast from Chelmsford, England, that was unusually clear. Later in the evening there was another rebroadcast that is said to have been even better.

The inaugural program of the new feature series by Reinold Werrenrath, famous American baritone, who is seeking to do for song what Walter Damrosch has done for symphonic music, will be broadcast through WEAF, WGY, and other NBC stations September 16, at 7 o'clock. The series is presented under the general title "Famous Songs and Those Who Made Them" and is sponsored by The Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company of Philadelphia, producers of Old Company's Lehigh Anthracite Coal. For his opening program, Reinold Werrenrath has chosen songs which he knows the American public likes through their choice of them on Werrenrath phonograph records, opening with "Gypsy Love Song" from Victor Herbert's operetta "The Fortune Teller". He will sing Walter Damrosch's setting for the Kipling poem "Danny Deever", and Oley Speaks' arrangement of the equally famous "On the Road to Mandalay".

NEWBURGH ACTS TO KEEP FACTORY RUNNING

A great industrial depression is making itself felt in Newburgh and City Councilman Renwick Anderson recently urged that the city take initiative steps in the solution of the problem. According to his plan, which met with the favor of all concerned, especially of Mayor James D. Tweed, a general conference will be held in the city hall of Newburgh on September 21 at 8 p. m. The fact that many Newburgh residents will suffer if the situation is not remedied was made very pronounced Monday when George Ferry of the hat shop on Washington street told members of the city council and the Chamber of Commerce that the shop will be closed within the present month if it is not sold before October 1. The plant employs a considerable number of people, some of whom worked there for over 40 years. Tremendous overhead and keen competition will not permit the Ferry people to continue the shop.

The Chamber of Commerce is planning to get a buyer for the factory, which will be sold at about one-fourth of its value. It is said, Mr. Ferry is anxious for the welfare of his employees, according to statements made, which is one reason for the attractive price he is asking. In an effort to solve the industrial problem the secretary of the Newburgh Chamber of Commerce will be sent on a trip through the state, during which he will study conditions and get in touch with prospects for Newburgh industries.

Code Employed for Telegrams in China

The transmission and receipt of telegrams in China is not so easy as in western countries, because the Chinese language lacks an alphabet and expresses itself by characters and signs that represent words. In consequence, for purposes of telegraphing, an exact list has been made of signs in quantity sufficient for ordinary correspondence, and to each of the signs a different number is given which is transmitted by the Morse telegraphic system. The code consists of 3,800 ciphers, the whole forming a pamphlet of 49 pages, each one of which contains ten series of 20 characters with its corresponding number. On receipt of a telegram the operator looks up in his book the characters represented by the numbers transmitted by the apparatus and transcribes them into legible Chinese.—Washington Sunday Star.

That Are Too Common

No matter what your race or birthplace, proclaim long and loudly that you are "American to the core"—this shows that you have learned the language, at any rate.

If the value of something foreign is being discussed, do not argue the matter; dispose of it with a name—If it is Italian, call it "Wop;" if French, "Frog;" if German, "Boche;" if English, "Limey."

Do not wax sentimental over your home town; this is provincial—speak in generalities, such as "the greatest nation on earth," "America for the Americans," etc.

If you are present at an international contest in which an American is beaten, insist at once that the contest has been "framed." Axiom: An American can never be beaten fairly.

Maintain stoutly that America is superior to every other nation on earth in everything imaginable. If forced to modify this, say "in everything worth while."

Show your love for your country by your contempt for everything foreign—this is what has made the Germans so popular.

Flowers Used as Food

in Oriental Countries

Flowers for food are virtually unknown in America, but in several parts of this wide world they play an important part as table delicacies. The Chinese, Japanese, Egyptians and various people of India eat blossoms prepared in several ways, says the Farm Journal.

In China, lilies are served as vegetables, boiled with pepper and salt, either in milk or water. Banana blossoms, dipped in vinegar, are almost a staple of diet during their season.

In northern India a cake is made from the aromatic flowers of a local shrub. They are mixed with butter and a coarse sugar before baking. Many other such recipes, startling to the foreigner, are to be found in northern Africa and that vast stretch of the world lying between the Mediterranean and the Pacific.

Symptoms Have a Purpose

Symptoms of disease generally have a definite and beneficent purpose. They are not necessarily sent to destroy you. They are often helpful. They often represent a process of cure. Even Hippocrates, who is credited with being the father of medicine, advised against the suppression of symptoms. The body is at all times working for its own good. Disease germs, even when they bring about the complaints associated with them, clearly indicate a bodily condition that needs attention. And should there be measures which could destroy the influence of such germs, the organism would still need treatment. As long as the body is "fertile soil" to the inroads of disease germs it needs purification, internal cleansing. —Physical Culture Magazine.

Obscurity at Birth No Monopoly for Al, Says Rogers

"I was a friend of Al's in the days of his obscurity. I thought he was a loser, but he is a winner."

When the above words, Will Rogers, presidential candidate of the Republican party, were spoken at the Democratic convention, the crowd of thousands of delegates and the thousands of spectators who were gathered in the arena of the Madison Square Garden, were reminded of the fact that the first time Al Smith was elected to the presidency, he was a loser.

Al Smith was a loser when he was elected to the presidency, but he was a winner when he was elected to the presidency. He was a winner when he was elected to the presidency, but he was a loser when he was elected to the presidency.

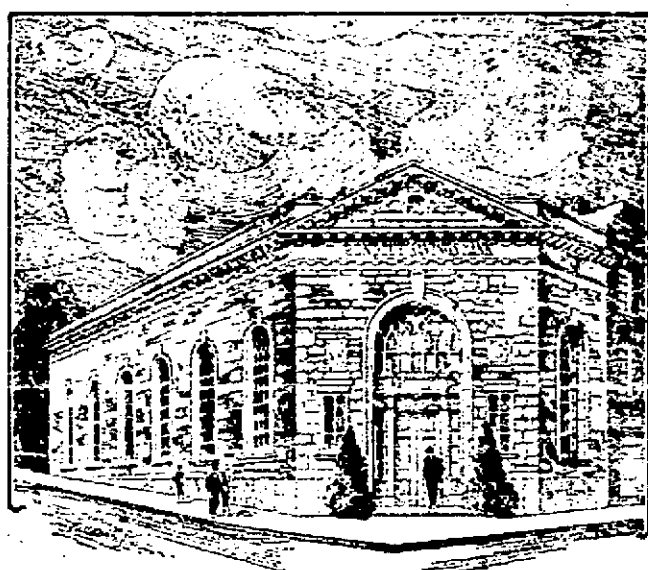

A Democrat is naturally a winner. He is out of office more and he was more time to think up things to say. A Republican has to say, "I am in and get me out." A Democrat has to say, "I am in and get me out." A Republican has to say, "I am in and get me out." A Democrat has to say, "I am in and get me out."

Will Builds His Own Platform

Now Al didn't have any monopoly on obscurity at birth. There is a whole lot of babies very well known at a young age.

"The part of his speech that kinder hit me was where he said that if he was elected he would have our government quit messing around down in Latin America. In other words, if a Marine went sight-seeing he would have to pay his own way."

Diana Of Rio Grande Out For Office Of Lieutenant Governor

Hunting is the hobby of Mrs. Lena More, Republican nominee for lieutenant governor of Texas. With her are her three daughters, Dorothy, Elizabeth and Gay.

Brownsville, Texas, Sept. 13 (AP).

A woman whose hobby is hunting is out to bag the office of lieutenant governor.

She is Mrs. Lena More, the Republican nominee for that office, living in Brownsville, which is on the Rio Grande, she shoots game in Mexico as well as Texas.

With the election several weeks away, she yearns more right now for the thrill of firing a rifle at a ferocious mountain lion than hammering a gavel to call the Texas senate to order. But when the state campaign gets fully under way, Mrs. More says, she will be as enthusiastic as she is during the open season on deer, quail and wild turkeys.

"I shall do all I can toward bringing victory for the Republican ticket, both state and national," she declares.

Mrs. More is the mother of three daughters. If she is elected, she will join two of the girls, Gay and Elizabeth, in Austin, where they attend the University of Texas. Dorothy, the youngest daughter, is a student at a school in Dallas.

Mrs. More's husband, C. H. More, died ten years ago. He was an intimate friend and political ally of R. B. Creager of Brownsville, the Republican national committeeman for Texas. Her father, D. F. Gay Sr., was a leader in the Democratic party and a staunch supporter of Woodrow Wilson.

Upon Mr. More's death, his widow took charge of the large estate he left and her success in business led to her election to the board of directors of the chamber of commerce. Besides being an ardent huntress, Mrs. More is active in other outdoor sports, including golf, motor racing, swimming and horseback riding. She is also interested in literary club work.

ALBANY AVENUE BIBLE SCHOOL OPENED SUNDAY

The Bible School of the Albany Avenue Baptist Church opened with a good attendance on Sunday last. Every one was delighted with the new Bible school building, and assignments were made in part to the different class rooms. Other assignments will be made this coming Sunday, and certain necessary changes will be made in the grading of the different classes. The school is to have a full equipment of maps, blackboards, desks and tables, and every facility for doing the best religious educational work. The kindergarten department now has a separate room, and includes pupils from two and a half to six years of age. Those who wish to enroll in the school are asked to be present this Sunday.

RECRUITING FOR ARMY AT CENTRAL POSTOFFICE

Corporal O'Connor of Albany, a member of the 7th Field Artillery, stationed at Madison Barracks, is in Kingston where he has been assigned to recruiting duty. Corporal O'Connor will be at the central postoffice on Broadway from 8 until 9 a. m. and from 1 to 3 and from 7 to 9 p. m., where he will be pleased to meet and talk with anyone interested in joining up with the service. At present there are vacancies in several branches of the service including the 25th Infantry, 7th Coast Artillery at Fort Rancocas, the 7th Field Artillery and also the Air Service.

Shandaken Company Incorporated. A certificate of incorporation under the stock corporation law has been filed at the office of the Ulster county clerk of the Shandaken Coal & Lumber Co., Inc. The capital stock is $30,000, and principal office of business address is Albany, town of Shandaken. Purposes for which corporation has been formed are to take, buy, exchange or otherwise acquire real estate; to hold, own, operate, control, maintain and manage same, erect or acquire buildings, factories, etc. The directors are: William S. Rieley, Samuel Flattery, Louis Tanzenbaum, addresses: 33 Park Row, Manhattan, New York. They also being the stockholders of record.

Air Passengers Coming Friday

An airplane bearing officers and members of the Rip Van Winkle Club of Shandaken will leave the Columbia Yacht Club, New York, at 4 p. m., Friday, September 13, bound for this city and is expected to arrive here in an hour. The clubmen will be taken to the Rip Van Winkle lodge at Shandaken by automobile. It is anticipated that the journey will be completed in two hours and if so the trip will have been made in record time.

The airplane is built to carry a number of passengers and is equipped with two 400 horsepower Liberty motors. Plans for flying here are complete in every detail and no trouble is expected in making the flight. Details of the flight and the passenger list will be published later.

ACTIVITIES IN ST. PAUL LUTHERAN CHURCH

Members and friends are asked to remember and visit the rummage sale of the Ladies' Aid Society each day of this week, closing Saturday. The sale is being held at 121 Hasbrouck avenue. Tonight the Teachers' and Officers' Society of the Bible school meets in the assembly room at 8:15. The pastor will continue his lectures on what produces and keeps a Sunday school teacher qualified to teach religious truths to the younger. He will also review the lessons for the coming month.

On Wednesday, September 19, beginning at half past five, the Young Peoples' Society will hold a Virginia ham supper. Tickets may be secured from Mr. Latour or the pastor or at the door.

It is announced that regular evening services will be held during the winter and spring. These services open at 7:30 and will be one hour in duration. The public and all friends are invited to visit. A particular invitation is extended to those friends who have not seen the interior of the new church.

No Wild Canary

The biological survey says there is no wild canary in North America. The bird that is sometimes called by that name is either the gold finch or the yellow warbler. Both of these birds are protected by state law, and the yellow warbler is protected by federal law. The birds cannot be kept in captivity.

Walking Will Become Easier

Method Discovered for Measuring Liability of Leather, Important Factor in Walking Comfort, Says Head of Leather Chemists' Association.

Scampscott, Mass., Sept. 13 (AP).—Prediction that walking will be easier for nearly everyone in the United States within a year as a result of chemical research, was made today at the American Chemical Society's annual meeting.

The forecast was made by John A. Wilson, of Milwaukee, newly elected national president of the American Leather Chemists' Association. The ease in walking he attributed to the discovery of a method of measuring for the first time the pliability of leather, one of the most important factors in walking comfort. Until the device for determining exactly the pliability was perfected, he said, manufacturers had no way of having a standard.

Chemists reported that the pliability of leather was constant, due partly to the ability of leather producers to control and to improve the quality. The change was described by Dr. Fred C. Blanchard of the U. S. Department of Agriculture Bureau of Chemistry and Soils, as a demand for higher quality.

"There is an immediate interest in the utilization of waste products in agriculture for human food," he said. "In the past our efforts have been to use this waste for animals or fertilizer. For example, our farmers sell their skins with pea pods. But the pea pod has a high protein and sugar content. We are working to put the enormous food energy of the protein and sugar in the pods into a form in which it can be used in food industries."

"It formerly cost the California citrus industry a dollar a ton to get rid of its waste products. Today the citrus fruit growers sell these waste products for $12 a ton. This former waste now converts into citric acid, orange oil, lemon oil, orange juice concentrate and protein, the very principle in fruit."

Proper Use of Trees

We have many millions of acres of forest left, says the American Forestry Association of Washington, with a warning, will send you its Forestry Primer. We are using them rapidly. Not to use them would be to waste them. Their products are necessary to us. But using them wastefully, allowing them to burn, falling to rot, the young trees growing naturally—these are things that should be over-

Arrests Nipped Spanish Plot

Madrid, Sept. 13 (AP).—Frustration of a plot against the government of Primo Di Rivera, who today celebrated the fifth anniversary of the establishment of his dictatorship, was announced in an official statement today.

Arrests nipped the plot in the bud. The statement said that the anti-government movement was to have come out into the open tonight with various elements participating, and that it appeared the plotters were trying to satisfy their own pride and ambition.

Primo Di Rivera in a statement to the Associated Press indicated that the military had no part in the plot, the arrests being made "among politicians, revolutionists and other elements which live and prosper by provoking disorders."

His statement read: "The condition of public order in Spain could not be better in all the country."

"It is not certain that delegates to the Labor Congress, which is being held tranquilly, have been arrested, nor also a single soldier, although it was proved that a plot to produce disorders on September 13 had been made."

"There have been some arrests among politicians, revolutionists and other element which live and prosper by provoking disorders."

Market for Fruits And Vegetables

New York, Sept. 13 (AP).—(State Department of Agriculture and Markets).—Liberal supplies of state lettuce, the bulk of which was unattractive, met a slow sale and values slumped slightly in a weak and sluggish market today. Sales on Big Boston were as high as $1.25 and as low as 25 cents per crate. Most of the business was at $1.25. Western iceberg peddled out at $2.75-$4.50, occasionally as high as $5. Demand for string beans were less active and the market closed weaker. Supplies were liberal. Upstate New York green round beans wholesaled at $1.50-$2.75 per bushel basket; green flat, $2-$3; and wax beans, $1-$3.75.

Supplies of state celery in the rough were more than sufficient to meet trade requirements. The outlet was limited and values varied greatly due to the wide range in quality. A large part of the sales was within the price range of $1.25-$2 per two-thirds crate. Extra fancy offerings reached $3. Some green worked out as low as 75 cents.

Arrivals of western New York carrots were moderate. Demand was exceedingly light in a lifeless market. Jobbing sales on unwashed muckland carrots were $1.30-$1.40, while washed stock peddled out at $1.75-$2.25.

New York state to September 10 has forwarded 413 cars of cabbage to terminal markets, against 59 for the same period last year. The price trend on fancy cucumbers was again upward. Arrivals from upstate were light. Demand was moderate. Cucumbers sold at $1.52, practically $1.25-$1.75 per bushel basket. Dills realized $1.75-$2.75, and pickles $2.50-$5.

Novel Menu

When Jackie returned from his first party his mother was eager, of course, to hear all the details of the festivity. When asked what he had to eat, Jackie said "Pink jumbo and thumbs." His mother, quite mystified, telephoned his hostess, and found that cherry junket and lady fingers had been served.

Home Bureau Meeting Schedule

Home Bureau Personnel Director Not Chose Roy, Subject at Home Bureau Meeting Next Week—Halters Continue in Communication.

Miss Claribel Nye, specialist in household management, will be in district county next week to give the first two lessons in the who, what, and how of home making. Miss Nye in this course is offering in household activities and family life will discuss the duties of the home maker as a personnel director.

Many household activities require only the mentality of a five year old child," says Miss Nye, and she comes to district county with many helpful suggestions for the home makers for directing the business of the household.

The schedule of the meetings is as follows:

Wednesday, Sept. 13.—10 o'clock standard time, Y. W. C. A., Kingston. All day meeting.

Thursday, Sept. 20.—1 o'clock standard time, Grange Hall, New Paltz. Evening session 7 o'clock standard time. This meeting is for the communities of New Paltz, Gardiner and Modena.

Friday, Sept. 21.—9:30 standard time. Community Hall, Malden. All day session.

Malden and Ashbury Joint Rally.

The meeting at Malden Friday is the first Home Bureau meeting ever to be held in that community as Malden has only recently organized for the Home Bureau program. The community of Ashbury joins with the new community of Malden for their rally day. Luncheon will be served at noon by the ladies of both communities and Miss Nye will lead the discussion both morning and afternoon. All are anticipating an interesting meeting.

Accord Rally Tuesday.

The Home Bureau at Accord is planning to whip itself into running order for its full program year of Home Bureau activities by holding a rally Tuesday, September 18. Rally day is always a big day in Accord, and every one is looking forward with keen anticipation to Tuesday. Luncheon will be served at noon after which Miss Evelyn Nance, Home Bureau manager, will give the first lesson in the meal planning course.

All meetings of the Home Bureau are open to any ladies of the county who wish to attend. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Straton Will Make Ten Speeches.

Dallas, Texas, Sept. 13 (P).—Dr. John Roach Straton, New York preacher stumping the south against the Smith presidential candidacy, will make ten addresses in Texas, the first probably in Dallas, September 23, Dr. Atticus Webb, president of the Anti-Saloon League has announced.

District Nurses to Meet.

District No. 11 of the New York State Nurses' Association will hold a meeting in the assembly room of the nurses' home of City of Kingston Hospital, Friday, September 14, at 2 p. m. All registered nurses are invited to attend.

Attractive Display of Hats.

An attractive display of Stetson hats in the window of A. Kunst & Son on lower Broadway is commanding considerable attention. The hats are of the new fall style.

Charge Police Conceal Facts

New York, Sept. 13 (P).—The Brooklyn Eagle says today that members of the family of William D'Olier, Queens sewer witness recently shot to death, now charge the district attorney's office and the police with concealing facts which might prove the death to be a murder rather than a suicide.

The family is quoted as saying that no relative of the dead man was permitted to examine his clothing or to view the body before the autopsy and that a request to have a representative of the family present at the autopsy was refused.

Officials, they are said to assert, concealed the alleged fact that dirt was found ground into one knee of D'Olier's trousers and failed to have the dirt analyzed in an effort to discover whether it had been pressed in to the cloth previously or at the place where he was found. They expressed the opinion that analysis of the dirt might furnish a strong indication that D'Olier was attacked and forced to his knees in a struggle before he was shot in the temple.

The death is listed by police as a suicide, but the district attorney's office has been investigating on the theory that it may have been murder.

JUDGE ORDERS ARREST OF ALLEGED ELOPER

The arrest of Thomas Andrews of Middletown, 19-year-old father of a child of 10 months, was ordered by Judge Russell Wiggins on a charge of abandonment when a newspaper clipping exhibited in court told of his elopement with Eleanor Lawrence, Monticello girl.

Mrs. Andrews claims to have been deserted by her husband on August 4. He left the home saying that he was going some place where he could sleep. Officers have been unable to locate him to serve a summons. Mrs. Andrews, who married her husband in 1926, has been working as a telephone operator in Orange county.

It is alleged that Andrews had been paying court to the Lawrence girl, an orphan who lived most of her life with the LaTourrette family at their hotel. Monday night the two went for an auto ride and when the girl did not return Mrs. LaTourrette examined her room. A note was found telling of the elopement and said "will be after my clothes after we are married." Whether the girl knew of Andrews' previous marriage is not certain, although LaTourrette is alleged to have warned her against him.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN AT ORPHEUM THEATRE.

Topsy in "Uncle Tom's Cabin", the epic novel of Harriet Beecher Stowe, is one of the few characters of fiction that has only one name. This impish dorkie enacted by Mona Ray, who wasn't born but "just grewed", is brought to the screen in Universal's $2,000,000 picturization of the immortal classic which will open at the Orpheum Theatre on September 24-27. An all-star cast has been selected, including Margarita Fischer, Arthur Edmund Carew, John Roche, Gertrude Astor, Lucien Littlefield, George Siegmann, Virginia Grey, Eulalie Jensen, J. Gordon Russell, Aileen Manning, Jack Mower, Vivien Oakland, and others.

Robinson Enters South Carolina

Praises Friendship of Tammany Hall for the South and Demounces Whispering Campaign Against Governor Smith.

Robinson Special Car, Via Route to Columbia, S. C., Sept. 13 (P).—Without wasting time, Senator Joe Robinson today entered South Carolina, the fifth of the eight states to be visited on his drive through the south.

The Democratic vice presidential nominee found in North Carolina opposition to the party's ticket, but in one of his three speeches in Charlotte expressed satisfaction over conditions there.

Prior to his visit he had heard of the opposition to the Smith ticket by Fumfold Simmons, North Carolina's senior senator, and of the formation in the state of anti-Smith clubs and the opening of Republican headquarters.

Mr. Robinson, however, in an address to Democratic leaders in Charlotte declared that from the information he had received he felt confident that the state as usual would be found in the Democratic column in November.

In his concluding address in North Carolina, the senator told the audience that a "whispering campaign" was being conducted against the Democratic presidential nominee, adding:

"I challenge those who are to show where Governor Smith ever put forward an official act that would be dominated by the Catholic Church."

He declared it was against American principles to "deny official recognition" to a man "because of his church affiliations and said he would rather be associated with Tammany Hall than with Hall, Baumgarten and Bandy."

He added that neither President Coolidge nor Herbert Hoover had "ever opened his mouth" in condemnation of these cabinet officers.

The senator assailed the Republican record on care of disabled war veterans and farm relief, and in touching up on the question of power, said that Governor Smith always had treated power interests in New York state "fairly."

He proposed to "open the power interests of the nation fairly," he added, "but he holds the right of future generations above the momentary right of great corporations to make money."

Mr. Robinson did not expand his remarks on this question, turning from that subject to what he said had been the long standing friendship of Tammany Hall for the south.

QUARTS FIRST RACE AGAINST ANDY PAYNE.

Tulsa, Okla., Sept. 13 (P).—The first race Abdul Hachmet El Omani, Algerian winner of the Olympic marathon at Amsterdam recently, runs in America will be here September 25, against Andy Payne of Claremore, Okla., winner of the transcontinental derby. The announcement was made after terms were arranged between William H. Hicken, representing the board of New York, and the Tulsa Rose Car-nal Association.

The race will be over the full marathon distance, 26.3 miles, on a circular track to be built in the Tulsa Baseball Park.

The pair may meet later in New York under Rickard's management, it was said.

Legion Auxiliary Meeting.

A regular meeting of the county committee of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held Tuesday evening, September 18, at 8 o'clock. All ladies, who will furnish cars are requested to meet at the Memorial Building on West O'Reilly street, at 7 p. m.

Indians to Hear About Politics

Washington, Sept. 13 (P).—Indians of the west are going to hear politics preached in this campaign by one of their best known Senators, the Republican vice president, Curtis, whose grandmother was a Kaw princess, is going to call on at least four tribes on his fourth coming tour of the northwest.

Stopping at the Rosebud Indian Reservation in South Dakota on September 20 he will visit with the Sioux, The Crows and Northern Cheyennes will be called on at Hardin, Mont., September 22. On September 25, the nominee will mingle with the Blackfoot at Idaho Falls. He also hopes to see the Osages in Oklahoma, where he will be at the end of the month.

Indians have voted this year in the presidential election. Many tribes already have sent word to the Senator of their support. The visits to the Indian reservations were made partly at his request. He likes to go among the Indians, with whom he lived for a while as a youth in Kansas.

Senator Curtis will leave here tomorrow on his western jaunt, going first to Livingston, Ky., where he speaks on Saturday. His next speaking engagement is at Evansville, Ind., on Monday. He will spend the northwest from there, with an engagement for each day until the end of the month. His route takes him to Billings, Mont., and then down to Cheyenne and Denver before doubling back to Missouri and Oklahoma.

Raid Inn At West Cossackie

Prohibit on agents from the Kingston office on Wednesday, after a raid on the Cossackie Inn at West Cossackie, where the agents arrested a woman, who was said to be a prostitute. The agents also arrested a man, who was said to be a gambler, and a woman, who was said to be a prostitute. The agents also arrested a man, who was said to be a gambler, and a woman, who was said to be a prostitute.

ELEANOR GUNN ON FASHIONS

Twoed Shoes and Other Oddities Including Fur Mandarins.

New York—The usual excitement attendant on a change of season and its subsequent urge for new fashions is abroad in the land. Those who are loathe to come back to the old find rest in seeing sports clothes and pleasure in noting that sweaters, and sweaters in which they are used at least in part have returned to favor. Sponsored by fashion, as they are, one hazards the guess that they will go over, several cardigan suits have scarfs and jumpers of knitted silk, the ensemble involving either wool, or velvet.

Blue continues a favorite for sports but burgundy and other reds, to say nothing of blues, appear very scarce. Blue retains its supremacy for evening also. Vionnet's choice of a soft blue-grey being widely approved. Purple and marie tones have been injected in the outdoor picture as well as for evening.

Topaz Acclaimed.

Since it pleases the fashion world to experiment still further with the ensemble theme it naturally follows that gems, semi-precious and otherwise, become popular as the colors to which they correspond lay into favor. Hence the sudden blossoming forth of lapis lazuli and the equally sudden acclaim of topaz.

One might make a long list of colored stones which are now approved, not of course forgetting the carnelian. It is even more exciting to report that pearls are again the vogue, also that diamonds have not in any way lost caste, nor are crystals less alluring.

Because shoes are of such amazing variety and interest one must approach the fall, shoe appropriately in either crepe de chine or tweed, more amazing still. The fabric shoe is of paramount importance, novelty kids and reptilian skin being incidental in the present scheme of things. The combination of fabric with kid or combinations of other kinds add interest to new footwear, infinite in its variety. It includes of course the Oxford, more or less elaborated upon, but the Oxford still. The wool shoe is of course something new enough to demand attention, but it has more than mere newness to its credit, while the crepe de chine evening slipper arouses interest.

Many Blue Kid Gloves.

One must list navy blue kid, as well as brown, for fall. Incidentally there are many blue kid gloves, and these to match.

Accessories being more or less under discussion by everyone concerned in preserving the ensemble idea, scarfs may be given consideration, especially for evening and especially in fur. The fur scarf, made of light weight pelts, and worn as one would wear a silk bandana, is a creditable innovation. Chanel's evening scarfs, an outcome of her success with the pailletted bandana, are new, and capable of creating a long glancing line, being made of spangles on net.

It is not surprising that the lace robe has returned with other lace and lingerie trimmings, or that the always to be relied upon combination of black velvet and lace has been revived with the usual result. Among the slated revivals are beaded evening dresses, notably those in bugle embroidered effects. (Copyright, 1928, by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

Eleanor Gunn Says

New York—Topaz and turquoise are listed among the smartest jewels, and share honors with lapis lazuli and pearls.

The draped turban and the fur turban are among new millinery conceits. Hats in general remain small and rather off the face.

Fur-trimmed rain coats are fore-runners of autumn.

Animal heads as a coat trimming have interest and style value.

The revival of the short fur jacket is looked forward to with interest.

Pasted feathers, used as one would use a fabric, are a fall fad.

Krimmer, shaved lamb, and novelty furs continue to be wanted, not only in sports, but in dressier types.

Trimmings are so glibly introduced on the newer hats that, while there is greater profusion than before, one is not conscious of them so skillfully are they blended in with the hat.

Metalized fabric appears to be wanted for evening. Cotton lame is one of the newer metalized fabrics.

OUR DAILY PATTERNA Becoming Afternoon Frock For Mature Figures.

6193. An exceptional frock in a pretty pattern of crepe de chine print is here featured. It is also pleasing in crepe or printed voile. The deep V opening outlines a vestee of contrasting color; and would be nice in lingerie, or lace. It lengthens the lines of the front. The skirt shows the popular uneven hem line, and flares prettily at the sides below the shaping of the waist portions. The tucks at the shoulder afford slight fullness and relieve and soften the lines. Lace in black or gray would be a good development for this model. It is also attractive in satin. The pattern is cut in 9 sizes: 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, 50, 52 and 54 inches bust measure. A 44 inch size will require 4 1/2 yards of 55 inch material together with 3/4 yard of contrasting material for facing on vestee and belt. The width of the dress with fullness extended is about 2 1/2 yards.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 12c in coin or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Kingston, N. Y. Be sure to state the size wanted.

Fashion Book Notice.

Send 15c in coin or stamps to The Freeman for our up-to-date Fall and Winter 1928 Book of Fashions showing color plates, and containing 500 designs of ladies' misses' and children's patterns, a concise and comprehensive article on dressmaking, also some points for the needle (illustrating 30 of the various simple stitches), all valuable hints to the home dressmaker.

"The first time I tried Rinso I couldn't believe my eyes—the clothes turned out such a dazzling white!"

"And all without any of that scrubbing which was necessary with old-fashioned bar soaps and chips. No wonder the clothes don't wear out so quickly or fray at the edges now!"

"Rinso suds aren't lazy! They get after dirt so, that I use it for dishes and pots and pans and all cleaning. It surely makes quick work of grease. Saves your hands, too."

Jones Survives After Weird Test

Clinton, Mass., Sept. 12 (AP).—Bobby Jones today remained a member of the east of the national amateur golf championship—reduced to eight—thanks to the world's most famous golfer, Ray Clifton, the champion, who was defeated in the first round of the tournament.

"Frenchy" Now "KO" Dewig

Boxing enthusiasts from this vicinity are referring to "Frenchy" Dewig as "K. O." Dewig now.

This is in recognition of his spectacular knockout of George Forbes, the clever negro fighter of New York.

Dewig had been knocked down by Forbes in the second round and was reposing on the canvas, apparently out for the count. As the referee tolled off the eighth count Frenchy leaped to his feet and staggered around the ring trying to get his bearings. Forbes was advancing slowly, measuring his man for the final blow, when suddenly Dewig saw the negro in front of him, with both hands by his sides. How Frenchy ever did what followed, no one has been able to cipher out. At any rate, three crashing blows from Frenchy's fists and the tables were turned. Forbes was the reclining one, only he didn't go down as if he were about to retire for the night. For the back of his head hit the floor of the ring so hard it could be heard in all parts of the big drill shed. But, unlike Dewig, he failed to get on his feet before the fatal ten. So Dewig won sensationally the most spectacular fight ever witnessed in the armory.

"K. O." Dewig will appear against another opponent on Friday, September 21st, in the armory of the First Battalion of the 156th Field Artillery on Broadway.

McNally Sure Of Pan-Am Win

One of the most important meetings ever held by the Pan-Ams baseball team will start Friday night at 8 o'clock in the oilmen's headquarters on the Saugerties road. Business of interest to every member will characterize the session.

Billy McNally, manager of the Pan-Ams, is confident that his nine will take the Blue Sox into camp when the teams meet in the "rubber" of a three-game series at the Kingston Fair Grounds Sunday afternoon. He has great faith in every one of his charges, who have been drilled for the tilt by Sheriff Arlie Rice, once famous for his ability on the diamond.

The boss of the oilmen has three pitchers ready to assume the mound task and promises that every one will be in tip-top hurling form. Carpenter likely will start the game. Black and Celuch will be on the bench ready to warm up at a minute's notice. Bob Sicker will augment the regular Pan-Am lineup on Sunday and his services are expected to play a big hand towards a win for the team.

Joe Tomasko, Blue Sox mentor, is quite sure his team will be able to overcome the oilmen Sunday. The Sox recently nosed out the Pan-Ams 7-6 for the benefit of the American Legion Drum Corps. This was the second meeting of the two teams. The initial game was copied by the Pan-Ams 2-2 and the oilmen contend they will repeat the victory in a more decisive manner next Sunday.

Saved the Trouble

The only man that doesn't make a fool of himself occasionally is the one whom Nature saved the trouble.

U. & D. Schillings Lose First Place

After leading the Industrial League all through the second half the U. & D. Schillings were dropped a notch Wednesday when they bowed to the Apollos by a score of 6-1 at the Athletic Field. The Puroficio City, who held second place, now had the circuit by a half game.

The game was started late due to wrangling over eligible ball players and it only lasted four innings, being called on account of darkness.

The Apollos won the game in the first inning by taking advantage of Ken Hotelling's liberality in handing out free trips to first base. After passing three batters Hotelling retired in favor of Black, who walked the first man to face him, forcing in a run. Dewey Van Buren then picked him for a single which sent in two more runners, giving the Apollos a three-run lead.

The combined players threatened to tie the score in their half of the first and had the tying runner on the sacks but could not score him. Weeks, the first batter, was given a walk, reached second on a wild pitch, advanced to third on Smedes's single and registered when Connelly singled.

Slipshod fielding by the combined players helped the Apollos increase their lead to six runs in the fourth inning. Errors by Connelly, Smedes and Black and hits by Crispell and Hyatt netted three runs.

Jimmy Merritt pitched for the Apollos and turned in a neat performance. He allowed but four hits and fanned nine of the twelve batters to face him. Jack Long pitched the last inning for the U. & D. Schillings, relieving Black after two runs had been scored.
